Essexville: St. Luke's UMC

Movie Night Friday, December 22 - 7:00 p.m.

St. Luke's is in the midst of its 50th anniversary celebration and we are hosting monthly movie nights; a movie from each decade since St. Luke's was formed. "Prancer" (the original NOT Lucas's re-mastered train wreck). There is no charge and there will be popcorn and beverages. This movie is rated G.

Compassionate Christmas Fair Saturday, December 2 - 2:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. & Sunday, December 3 - 10:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Support missions and outreach around the world! Fair trade gifts and food items available for sale. We will offer a variety of local and international mission projects for you to invest in as alternative gifts. Give the gift of hope to help people in need, promote peace and justice, and share the true meaning of Christmas.

Merry Tuba Christmas, Sunday, December 10 - 3:00 p.m. General Public: free admission

A full concert of Christmas carols and other holiday tunes arranged so that tubas play every part, including the melody!!! Celebrate the Christmas season and tuba virtuosity and sing along with the tuba choir. We encourage tuba, sousaphone, baritone, & euphonium players of all ages and abilities to perform in this concert. If you know a tuba player or band director, who, of course, will have tuba players in their band, please let them know and spread the word. Tuba players pay $10 each to participate which goes to the Harvey Phillips Foundation and includes a "Tuba Christmas 2017" button. Tuba players must also purchase the book of specially arranged Tuba Christmas music for $20 (it can be used every year). There will be reduced fees for students. Registration: 1:00 p.m. Rehearsal 1:30 p.m.
